Sayings and prayers from our patron Saint.

Good Pupils

Christians must seek to advance towards God every day and always to rejoice in God or in His gifts. Our exile here on earth is very short, and our native land is timeless. Here we seek devotion to God, but there we rest.

We must calculate our gains daily, we must be not only eager listeners but careful workers, This school of life, in which God is the only teacher, looks for good pupils who will not desert but remain loyal. - Sermon 16A, 1

Prayer: May God in His Mercy grant that every day we may be troubled, tried, disciplined, or make some progress. - Sermon 16A, 12
We would like to congratulate the RCIA Elect who were welcomed into our Church at St. Augustine’s Easter Vigil. Their testimony and dedication to the faith reinforces our own beliefs. They were Baptized, Confirmed and received their First Holy Communion on April 20. Please congratulate and welcome them: Nikki Leake and Dominic Mosqueda.

Our Candidates who were Confirmed and received First Holy Communion at St. Augustine’s Easter Vigil are: Joan Langford and Diane Mobley. We also had one Catholic who received her Confirmation and her First Communion: Ivonne Cruz. We congratulate and welcome all of these into our Church.

Marriage Moments

What a coincidence that this year Easter and Earth Day are only one day apart. Easter reminds Christians of the resurrection – that the death of the body is not the end of the world, Earth Day reminds us all that we humans have a duty to protect our little part of this world – planet Earth.

Parenting Pointers

The fourth week in April is National TV Turnoff Week. Talk to your kids this weekend about whether your family would be willing to find different kinds of entertainment for one week. You might even extend this to video games and anything on the computer that isn’t homework or work related. Sweeten the pot with some creative alternatives that involve the whole family.
Please Pray for the Sick

Prayer Requests

Please contact the STA parish office at 270-692-3019 to place a person on the prayer list or request for a person to continue on the prayer list. Out of respect for each person, please ask the individual prior to placing them on our prayer list. For those who suffer from illness of any sort and for their families, we pray they may experience the healing power of Jesus.

Please contact the Parish Office 270-692-3019 to place a person on the prayer list or request for a person to continue on prayer list.

This list will be cleared on the April 28 bulletin, please call the Parish Office (270-692-3019, ext. 6) to request for someone to continue on the prayer list. Thanks!

VBS has continued to grow each year, growing into a large program. If anyone would like to make a donation for our VBS it would be greatly appreciated. Adult volunteers are also needed. If you would like to volunteer or donate, please contact Andrea Willett at 270-692-3019 Ext. 8.

Outreach to Victims/Survivors
Happy Easter! April is Child Abuse Prevention Month. Today, we celebrate the hope of Easter, which reminds us to celebrate our lives as children of God - fully redeemed, fully loved, and fully alive human beings. The damage done by childhood sexual abuse violates the sense of safety, security, and wholeness in children and calls us to strengthen our efforts to reach out to victims and survivors of sexual abuse so that they may have lives of hope and wholeness. For more information on preventing sexual abuse and on victim assistance efforts, visit www.archlou.org/restoringtrust.

Easter Sunday

“Do you not know that a little yeast leavens all the dough? Clear out the old yeast, so that you may become a fresh batch of dough.”

1 Corinthians 5:6-7

Stewards can never calculate the effect our service may have on others. The work of redemption is sown in secret, but harvested for the benefit of all. Stewards simply trust that their efforts in Christ’s name make a difference.

What is Divine Mercy Sunday?

In a series of revelations to St. Maria Faustina Kowalska in the 1930’s, our Lord called for a special feast day to be celebrated on the Sunday after Easter. Today, we know that feast as Divine Mercy Sunday, named by Blessed John Paul II at the canonization of St. Faustina on April 30, 2000. The Lord expressed His will with regard to this feast in His very first revelation to St. Faustina. The most comprehensive revelation can be found in her Diary entry 699:

My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day, the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day are opened all the divine floodgates through which graces flow. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come from the very depths of My most tender mercy. Every soul in its relation to Me will contemplate My love and mercy throughout eternity. The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My mercy.

In all, St. Faustina recorded 14 revelations from Jesus concerning His desire for this feast.

Nevertheless, Divine Mercy Sunday is NOT a feast based solely on St. Faustina’s revelations. Indeed, it is not primarily about St. Faustina – nor is it altogether a new feast. The Second Sunday of Easter was already a solemnity as the Octave Day of Easter. The title “Divine Mercy Sunday” does, however, highlight the meaning of the day.

Extraordinary Graces

What graces are available and how do we receive them?

In her Diary, St. Faustina records a special promise given to her by Jesus. He told her to communicate it to the whole world:

My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy (699).

In three places in her Diary, St. Faustina records our Lord’s promises of specific, extraordinary graces:

I want to grant a complete pardon to the souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My mercy (1109).

Whoever approaches the Fountain of Life on this day will be granted complete forgiveness of sins and punishment (300).

The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion will obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment (699).

To receive these graces, the only condition is to receive Holy Communion worthily on Divine Mercy Sunday (or the Vigil celebration) by making a good confession beforehand and staying in the state of grace and trusting in His Divine Mercy. By these conditions, our Lord is emphasizing the value of confession and Holy Communion as miracles of mercy. The Eucharist is Jesus, Himself, the Living God, longing to pour Himself as Mercy into our hearts. In addition, our Lord says through St. Faustina that we are to perform acts of mercy:

"Yes, the first Sunday after Easter is the Feast of Mercy, but there must also be acts of mercy” (742).

"The graces of My mercy are drawn by means of one vessel only, and that is trust. The more a soul trusts, the more it will receive” (1578).

The worthy reception of the Eucharist on Divine Mercy Sunday is sufficient to obtain the extraordinary graces promised by Jesus. A plenary indulgence, obtained by fulfilling the usual conditions, also is available.
